The International Opera Academy (IOA) in Ghent offers a specialised programme for singers & répétiteurs from all over the world, to prepare them for future professional careers as opera singers or répétiteurs. The IOA cooperates with a variety of partners: opera houses, music theatres, concert halls and orchestras.

Why IOA?

The IOA offers:

- an up-to-date curriculum, responding to the changing reality of opera/music theatre;
- an individual trajectory, in accordance with your artistic development;
- professional teachers and artists with direct ties to the professional world;
- student participation in masterclasses by internationally renowned performers, audition for agents and you perform in fully staged opera projects in coproduction with professional partners (e.g. Opera Ballet Vlaanderen) and orchestras;
- study with a international group of professionals in location in Ghent: a cultural hotspot, a historical, cultural city with easy access to important concerts and opera productions in major European cities.

Who can apply to the IOA?

Students, eligible to register for the selection process, must not be older than 32 and must have completed a programme in classical singing or piano (Bachelor or Master), OR have equivalent experience - upon the start of the next IOA academic year.
